Gloves Solvex Nitrile

SKU : S000074366

Description:

When you need protection from exposure to liquid and hazardous materials, Solvex gloves have proven to be a superior choice over rubber or neoprene. Made of a high-performance nitrile compound that provides an outstanding combination of strength and chemical resistance, Solvex gloves won't swell, weaken, or degrade. And they offer protection against snags, punctures and abrasions! The gloves' soft cotton flock lining absorbs perspiration and feels comfortable on the hand.

Auto Dry Desiccator

Description:
Equipped with a solid polymer electrolyte membrane dry unit that continuously removes moisture in the chamber through electrolysis, enabling stable dehumidification. Power consumption is 3 watts (approximately 440 yen/year) due to its energy-saving design, making it economical. Since the dehumidification unit does not have a driving part, it does not generate noise or vibration, and has excellent durability. Moisture inside the cabinet is released directly to the outside in a gaseous state.
